

DEMOCRATS ADOPT PLATFORM; ADJOURN

Party Document is Exactly as Approved by President Wilson

VOTE ON SUFFRAGE PLANK

Favor Extension of Franchise to Women State by State, on Same Terms as Men

INCLUDE AMERICANISM PLANK

ST. LOUIS, Mo., June 16.—The Democratic national convention finished its work today by adopting the party platform exactly as approved by President Wilson and submitted by the resolutions committee, including the planks on Americanism and favoring woman suffrage, but not until the harmony of its three days' sessions had been ripped over a row over the suffrage plank.

Vote on Suffrage Plank.
No voice was raised against the vigorous declarations of the Americanism plank. At one time it looked as if the suffrage plank had been lost, but after Senator Walsh of Montana had told the convention that President Wilson himself considered it vital to party success, it was voted into the platform by a ballot of 888 1-2 to 181 1-2.

The whole platform then was adopted without roll call.

As it went into the platform, the suffrage plank stands:

"We favor the extension of the franchise to the women of this country, state by state, on the same terms as to the men."

Haggard and worn from an all-night session, the platform makers were not ready with their report until after noon, when Senator Stone, sleepless for more than thirty hours, took the speaker's stand and explaining that he was too tired to read the document, gave over this task to Senator Walsh of Montana and Senator Hollis of New Hampshire. They "spelled" each other, reading the long declarations.

The fight on the suffrage plank was in the air. Everybody was keyed up to it and when at the conclusion of the reading of the platform, Martin Lomasney of Boston, a delegate, claimed the attention of the chair, it was thought that he was opening the fight and it was several minutes before the shouts of approval and cries of disapproval could be still sufficiently to hear that he wanted to put the convention on record as sympathizing with "The people of Ireland."

"Raus mit him," roared a Baltimore delegate and the hall rocked with laughter.

The real fight broke immediately after, however, when Gov. Ferguson of Texas, who headed the minority report against the administration plank, was given thirty minutes in which to present it.

Plank Offered by Minority.
The plank offered by the minority was this:

"The Democratic party has always stood for the sovereignty of the several states in the control and regulation of elections. We reaffirm the historic position of our party in this regard and favor the continuance of that wise provision of the federal constitution which vests in the several states of the Union the power to prescribe the qualifications of their electors."

With Gov. Ferguson, it was signed by former Representative Bartlett of Georgia, James R. Nugent of New Jersey and Stephen B. Fleming of Fort Wayne, Ind.

The burden of Gov. Ferguson's argument was that suffrage, being purely a state's right question, the wording of the majority plank was a presumptuous recommendation to the states on how to conduct their elections.

Anti-suffrage delegates on the floor plied the governor with questions which brought out, in the answers, fresh arguments against the administration plank and when Ferguson had finished, the convention was in confusion and the tone of the uproar in the delegates sections was indicative of sympathy with the opponents of the administration plank.

Bombard Stone with Questions.
When Senator Stone took the speaker's place to defend the plank, he was bombarded with a running fire of questions and arguments from delegates on the floor which eventually exhausted the time allotted to him without permitting him to speak ten successive minutes.

Anti-suffrage delegates loudly challenged his references to Ferguson's statements with cries of "That's not what he said," and "That's not fair." Many delegates openly took the position that the question was becoming much con-

SUFFRAGISTS DENOUNCE DEMOCRATIC PLANK

DECLARE THEY WILL IMMEDIATELY RESUME FIGHT IN CONGRESS

Chairman of Woman's Party Regards Democratic Plank Weaker Than the Republican—Executive Board of National Suffrage Association Issues Statement.

St. Louis, Mo., June 16.—Leaders of both the Woman's Party and the National American Woman Suffrage Association tonight united in denouncing as inadequate the suffrage plank of the Democratic platform and declared they would immediately resume their fight in Congress for national recognition.

"We shall return to Washington as quickly as possible," Miss Ann Martin, chairman of the Woman's Party said. "We are going to give the Democratic congress one more chance to make good before adjournment. If it does not see fit to pass a constitutional amendment, war will follow."

"Some of the Democratic leaders pretend to see a declaration for national suffrage in the plank they have given us. I do not so interpret it. But we shall give Congressional leaders every chance to read that interpretation into it if they want to. I regard the Democratic plank weaker than the Republican. The preamble of the latter at least, is regarded by some as giving national endorsement to suffrage."

"Thus far we have not worked out details of our plans for fighting the Democratic party this fall, for we have hopes that the congressional leaders will see the light. But if they continue to oppose us, we will fight them. And it will be a good fight too. We have 4,000,000 women voters, $500,000 in cash, a good cause and a determined spirit. With all of these we cannot help but win."

Immediately after the adjournment of the convention, Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, president of the National American Woman Suffrage Association, called a special meeting of her national board and later issued the following official statement:

"No suffragist who was present at the convention today could misinterpret either the speeches or the action taken by the Democratic party in adopting the alleged woman suffrage plank in its national platform."

"The Democrats admitted freely in their speeches that 'political expediency' demanded some kind of a suffrage plank and they thought to hoodwink the women of a juncture of words that were designed to meet the situation, but in no sense succeeded."

"The so-called suffrage plank which they adopted, after bursts of eloquence that were far more frank than intelligent, cannot be expected to win the presidential campaign for them. But it may well be expected to win the antagonism of millions of men and women voters in all parts of the country."

"If the plank adopted today is the president's choice, the world may justly accuse him of descending to the tricks of the cheapest politician in order to bid for votes by flaunting a plank that may be interpreted in as many ways as there are people."

Mrs. Catt also sent the following telegram to President Wilson:

"Inasmuch as Gov. Ferguson of Texas and Senator Walsh of Montana, made diametrically opposite statements in the Democratic convention today with regard to your attitude toward the suffrage plank adopted by the convention, we apply to you directly to state your position on the plank and give your precise interpretation of its meaning."

(Signed) "Carrie Chapman Catt, The Nationals will hold another meeting of its executive board tomorrow, to outline a definite plan of attack on congress, in an effort to push thru the Susan B. Anthony or another constitutional amendment."

HAY SUBMITS FAVORABLE REPORT ON ARMY APPROPRIATION BILL

WASHINGTON, June 16.—A favorable report on the annual army appropriation bill, carrying $57,123,099, was submitted to the House today by Representative Hay, chairman of the Military Committee. Besides providing for regular army increases, federalization of the National Guard and civilian training camps authorized by the new army reorganization bill, the measure would create an executive council for mobilization of resources for national defense and permit use of army transports to carry commercial cargoes between the United States and its insular possessions. Provision is made for a $600 annuity to Mrs. Harriet Carroll, mother of the late Surgeon General Carroll, who discovered the yellow fever germ at the cost of his life. The bill probably will be taken up in the House for passage next week.

ADVISES PROGRESSIVES TO SUPPORT HUGHES.

Omaha, Neb., June 16.—Dr. W. O. Henry, candidate of the Progressive party in Nebraska for United States senator, tonight announced his withdrawal from the race. In a statement he advised Progressives to support Charles E. Hughes in "the interest of the country."

PERFECT PLANS FOR MUSTER CAMPAIGN

Spanish War Veterans Seek to Form Six Regiments in Illinois

MOVEMENT NATION WIDE

"Boys of '98" Aver U. S. Veterans' Legion Will Produce 25,000 Well Trained Troops

INMAN RELATES EXPERIENCES

CHICAGO, June 16.—Following scenes of great enthusiasm, the delegates to the thirteenth annual state encampment of the United Spanish War Veterans today perfected plans for a muster campaign which will have as its purpose the formation of at least six regiments of former service men in Illinois, under the banner of the newly created United States Veterans' Legion, an auxiliary organization.

Pledge Support to Movement.
Formal resolutions were adopted by the encampment, pledging the hearty support of the department to the movement, which is nation-wide in its extent and which the "Boys of '98" aver, will produce a force of not less than 250,000 well trained troops available to the government in the event of war with a foreign power.

A telegram was sent to President Wilson, pledging the membership of the department of Illinois practically as a body, should the occasion arise for a call for volunteers and congratulating the president upon the result of the recent campaign for "adequate preparedness against war."

B. F. Bliss, who is a candidate for senior vice commander at the election tomorrow, spoke earnestly in favor of a "preparedness that prepares," and went on record as favoring a system which will permit every citizen to exercise his privilege of "being ready to defend the flag."

"Not every man is privileged to attend the so-called civilian training camps," said Mr. Bliss, "nor can every young man in the country belong to the National Guard. Other means must be provided if the entire citizenry, whose duty it is to share with each other the burden of national defense, is to be duly and truly prepared for an evil hour."

Know Horrors of Unpreparedness.
"We men of '98 know the horrors of national unpreparedness and it is our earnest prayer that there never may be a repetition of those times and those tragedies, when brave men died by the hundreds in fever-infested camps—because we were unprepared; because we did not know."

Other delegates who spoke on preparedness were Adjutant Martin Siple, of Elgin; Leslie J. Snyder, of Bloomington; Ben R. Hall, Streator; Carl McKee, Joliet; Judge John D. Works, Rushville; Charles M. Crayton, Danville; E. H. D. Couch, Peoria; Oscar Carlstrom, Aledo; James F. Ballou, Dixon; D. E. King, Rockford; William Shouer, Freeport; R. R. Murdock, Monmouth; Noble Bauman, Springfield; George E. Sopher, Streator; Lieut. Gov. Barratt O'Hara, Chicago; Past Department Commander Charles Daniels, Chicago, and Department Commander M. J. Donohue, Streator.

A resolution was adopted unanimously pledging the support of the department to Barratt O'Hara for national member at the national encampment to be held in this city in September. General James I. Stuart of Chicago, and Major John B. Inman of Springfield were guests of honor at today's session. Both are veterans of the civil war and the Spanish war.

Major Inman Relates Experiences.
Major Inman related some of his experiences in both campaigns.

"Warfare is becoming more and more a test of mental capability," he said, "as well as of almost superhuman physical endurance. It is criminal to think of sending our boys to the front unless they are fitted for the acid tests which are certain to be applied there. And now is the time to fit them for what may happen when tomorrow comes—as it surely must."

"This is a republic. We have certain principles to uphold; principles established by the shedding of precious blood. It behooves us to be ready. We old fellows of '61, even more than you youngsters of '98, know the horrors of war. We do not want war. The way to prevent it is to be prepared against it. Did you ever see a little man attack a big athletic chap with a pack of bulldogs at his heels? You never will. That's the answer to the pacifists."

Tonight occurred the grand crawl of the Grand Lair of the Military

War News Summarized

Forward drives of the Russian armies in Volhynia, Galicia and Buwina continues with apparently undiminished success. From the Pripet marshes southward to Czernowitz the forces of Gen. Brusiloff, according to reports from Petrograd, are throwing back counter-attacks and are advancing against the Austrian armies. In the thirteen days the Russians have taken prisoner almost 170,000 men and have captured immense stores of war booty, says the Russia war office.

Battles southeast of Lutsk, between Kozin and Tarnovak and northwest of Buczacz, have brought further successes to the Russian arms. In an action on the Blutchewka river, southeast of Lutsk, more than 5,000 men were captured after attacking Russians had forced the river. The fighting continues northwest of Buczacz, where the Germans are co-operating with the Austro-Hungarians, but the Russians report the capture here thus far of 6,000 men from the Teutonic allies.

Attempts of the Austrians and Germans to take the offensive on many sectors of the long front were repulsed, according to Petrograd. The Russian war office also chronicles the repulse of attacks in the region of Sokul, southeast of Kovel, one of the objectives of the present drive. Berlin reports the capture of 400 Russians during an attack on a German position north of Przewlaka.

Around Verdun the French and Germans were inactive during the day, there having been only intermittent bombardments. Paris says that it has been confirmed that the French attack of Thursday on the slope southwest of Le Mort Homme resulted in the capture of German trenches on a front of about two-thirds of a mile.

While London claims "no advances" for the British forces in Mesopotamia in the region of Kut-el-Amara, Constantinople asserts the British have retired from within the range of the Turkish guns. The occupancy of Imam Mansura on the south bank of the Tigris river and the pushing forward of British trenches to within two hundred yards of the Turks at Sannayyat on the north bank of the Tigris are claimed by London. On the other hand, the Turks say the British camp has been removed from Felahic, on the Tigris below Kut-el-Amara, owing to the activity of the Turkish guns against it.

British forces operating in the eastern part of German East Africa have made further advances and have occupied two villages. Near the coast the British have taken Korogwe and also have seized position in the Victoria Nyanza sector.

PRESIDENT RECEIVES HUNDREDS OF CONGRATULATORY MESSAGES

Plans for Vigorous Campaign Will Take Shape after Wilson Confers with Vance McCormick.

Washington, June 16.—Plans for the vigorous Democratic campaign that will be directed from the White House will begin to take definite shape after President Wilson has conferred with Vance McCormick, the new chairman of the National Committee and other party leaders, probably next week. The president, it was said tonight, probably would receive formal notification of his nomination at Shadow Lawn, N. J.

Hundreds of congratulatory messages reached the White House today from all parts of the country. One of the first to come was from Vice President Marshall at Indianapolis.

The president spent the morning at regular semi-weekly cabinet meeting and in the afternoon motored with Mrs. Wilson. In the evening he read newspaper stories of the St. Louis convention, where his suffrage plank won today only after a fight on the convention floor. The White House made no comment on the convention.

The president's next speech will be made before the New York Press club June 30.

CHAUFFEUR PURSUES THIEVES IN AUTO; CAUSES THEIR ARREST

CHICAGO, June 16.—Mrs. Earl H. Reynolds, wife of Earl H. Reynolds, son of George M. Reynolds, prominent Chicago banker, was forced into her bedroom in her home in a fashionable north side district at the point of a gun today by a man and woman whom she found ransacking her home upon her return from an auto trip.

The thieves fled immediately. Mrs. Reynolds followed them down stairs and notified her chauffeur, who watched them enter a street car. He pursued them in an automobile until he found an officer who arrested a man who gave him the name as W. J. Clark and a woman who gave hers as Mrs. Eva Geisel. Both were identified by Mrs. Reynolds as the pair in the house.

WEATHER HINDERS TRAINING

Poughkeepsie, N. Y., June 16.—Unfavorable weather and water conditions, which have handicapped the oarsmen during the last ten days of training for the twenty-second annual regatta of the Intercollegiate Rowing Association, continued to the eve of the race today.

MOTHER OF MARION LAMBERT ON STAND

Testifies Her Daughter Was of a Very Happy Disposition

REMAINED SO TO LAST

Mrs. Lambert Impeaches the Testimony of Josephine Davis, Marion's Chum

MAY CALL LONGLAND TO STAND

WAUKEGAN, Ill., June 16.—Today's proceedings in the trial of William Orpet, college student charged with the murder of Marion Lambert, produced one thrill when Mrs. Frank Lambert, mother of Marion, in deep black took the witness stand. Mrs. Lambert testified that her daughter was of a very happy disposition, and remained so up to the last moment that she saw her on Feb. 9, the day of her death.

With this witness the defense entered general objection to testimony of Marion's moods as it has with other witnesses, Judge Donnelly in each instance returning an "overruled."

Impeaches "Jo" Davis' Testimony.
Mrs. Lambert impeached the testimony of Josephine Davis, Marion's chum. Josephine testified that Marion cried on Feb. 6 at her birthday party because of the defection of Orpet who had transferred his affection to another girl. Mrs. Lambert asserted that the tears were occasioned by the inability of another girl friend, Annie Paulson, to spend the night with her. "For many years on birthdays the girls had spent the night with each other, but Anna had to break the custom this time," said Mrs. Lambert.

Other witnesses were Dr. Ralph W. Webster and Dr. William E. McNally, toxicologists, who expressed the opinion that the cyanide potassium which caused Marion's death was taken in solution; Fred L. Wendham, the undertaker, who was cross examined, and Wilson Franklin, Walter Gales and Albert Hopman, who went over the ground in Helm's Woods looking vainly for the container of the poison.

Their search brought nothing of value to light. James H. Wilkerson and Ralph F. Potter, attorneys for young Orpet, cross examined the toxicologists and Wendham, who cared for Marion's body, laid much stress on the period which elapsed between the death of Marion and the date that the coat was sent to the chemists for examination of the white spots left on it by the poison. Wendham received the coat on Feb. 10 and testified that on that afternoon between 4 and 5 o'clock he noticed the three circular white spots. It was not until May 5 that the garment was sent to Dr. Webster.

The coat lay about the mortuary for three or four days when, according to Wendham, he sealed it on instructions from State's Attorney Ralph J. Dady.

Testifies concerning Spots in Snow.
Wendham testified also concerning the yellowish spots in the snow where Marion's chin rested, and five or six in the course in the snow followed by her male companion in leaving the body.

The toxicologists previously testified that cyanide of potassium would leave a yellowish stain in the snow, and the odor of its gas is peculiarly distinct. Wendham said that the stains in the snow gave no particular odor. He scooped up some of the snow and carried it away, he said, when the coroner said he had no use for it.

The defense adduced from the undertaker that he picked up a piece of paper while following the footprints in the snow. He denied that he had remarked at the time that he had the container in which the poison was brought to the woods. It is said that the defense will introduce witnesses of its own on this point in support of its contention that Marion brought the poison in powdered form in a paper to the scene of her death. Mr. Dady asked that the court call Percy Longland as its own witness. Mr. Wilkerson objected and the jury was excused while the point was argued. This was still in progress when recess until tomorrow was taken.

Longland was and is employed in the Cyrus McCormick estate by E. O. Orpet, father of the defendant and superintendent of the estate.

He had charge of the green house in which a can of cyanide of potassium was kept. Dady related that Longland said that the elder Orpet had ordered him to dispose of the poison at Christmas as it had deteriorated in strength. Longland forgot it, but on Feb. 14, four days after Marion's body was found Dady said that Longland told him that Orpet came to him and ordered him to throw it in the ash heap and to "forget that you ever saw it."

"This," said Mr. Dady, "was being

G. O. P.-MOOSE PEACE PARLEYS UNDER WAY

PERKINS MAKES ANNOUNCEMENT AFTER SERIES OF CONFERENCES

Col. Roosevelt Evinces Surprise at What Perkins Said—Knows Nothing About It—W. Murray Crane Calls on Roosevelt.

New York, June 16.—George W. Perkins, Progressive leader, after a series of conferences today with Colonel Roosevelt and with Gov. Charles S. Whitman, announced that negotiations were under way looking to a "restoration of the good feeling" between the Progressives and Republicans.

Mr. Perkins saw Gov. Whitman just after the governor had called upon Charles E. Hughes. The Progressive leader then returned to call upon Col. Roosevelt. He had long talks with both.

W. Murray Crane, chairman of the subcommittee of the Republican national committee which has authority to select a manager for the Hughes campaign, called on Col. Roosevelt at his hotel late today. Eorn declined to discuss what was considered at their conference.

Col. Roosevelt was asked regarding the progress of negotiations between the Republicans and Progressives and was told of Mr. Perkins' statement. He evinced surprise at what Mr. Perkins had said.

"I know nothing whatever about it," he declared. "I have nothing to say. If I have anything to say, I will say it under my own signature."

Others who called on the former president were James R. Garfield and Elton H. Hooker, Erwin A. Holt, a delegate from North Carolina to the Progressive national convention, visited him tonight.

"I am open to conviction," said Mr. Holt, "but I think too much of Col. Roosevelt to see him put up as a target for defeat."

Col. Roosevelt's illness was announced tonight, after a consultation with his physicians is nothing more serious than a slight attack of pleurisy.

"Col. Roosevelt has a slight touch of pleurisy," said Dr. Hubert C. Geile, the physician in charge of the case. "His illness is nothing to worry about at all. His condition is thoroughly satisfactory."

The former president dined at his hotel tonight with Mr. and Mrs. Nelson O'Shaughnessy, Mrs. Roosevelt and other members of the family. Later the dinner party attended the theatre, but the colonel remained in his room.

HITCHCOCK IS NOT CANDIDATE FOR CHAIRMAN OF COMMITTEE

Asserts He is Sure Mr. Hughes Will Make a Wise Choice and Whoever Is Selected Will Receive His Heartiest Support

New York, June 16.—Frank H. Hitchcock, who returned to New York tonight from Wisconsin, where he went after the close of the Republican convention at Chicago, declared he is not a candidate for the chairmanship of the Republican National Committee.

"Regarding the chairmanship," he said in a statement issued after his arrival here. "I wish to repeat what I said at the close of the convention in Chicago, namely that I am not in any sense a candidate for the position. No man who as gone thru the gruelling experience of conducting a national campaign is likely to seek that responsibility again."

"The question of the chairmanship must be carefully considered and I am sure he will make a wise choice. Who is selected will receive my hearty support. I am tremendously anxious to see Mr. Hughes elected president because I believe it will mean a restoration of national prestige and honor. In my judgment the surest way to bring about his election is to have the campaign conducted by a campaign committee, composed of Progressive as well as Republican leaders. In order to win it will be necessary to rally to the support of our nominees, the voters in both wings of the party."

Mr. Hitchcock will leave for Boston tomorrow night to attend the reunion of his class at Harvard.

SOCIALISTS WILL NOMINATE CANDIDATE FOR GOVERNOR TODAY

CHICAGO, June 16.—John H. Walker of Danville and Paul H. Castle of Springfield, were among those talked of by delegates today at the opening of the seventh biennial state convention of the Socialist party of Illinois as candidates for the gubernatorial nomination of the party. The nomination will be made tomorrow. Mr. Walker is president of the Illinois Federation of Labor and a former head of the Mine Workers Union. Mr. Castle is state organizer for the party.

Allen Benson of New York and George R. Kirkpatrick of New Jersey, presidential and vice presidential nominees of the party are due tomorrow.

MEXICAN GENERAL WARNS PERSHING

Will Consider Any Movement of Americans Except North as Hostile

PERSHING IS PREPARED

Impression in Capital is That Pershing's Order Will Not Be Changed By Trevino's Threat

NO FEAR OF IMMEDIATE CLASH

CHIHUAHUA CITY, Mexico, June 16.—General Jacinto Trevino, commanding the Carranzista army of the north, today advised Gen. J. J. Pershing, American expeditionary commander, that any movement of American troops from their present lines to the south, east or west would be considered a hostile act and a signal to commence warfare. Gen. Trevino acted upon specific instructions from Gen. Carranza.

Arouse No Apprehension

El Paso, Tex., June 16.—Dispatches from Chihuahua City that Gen. Trevino had notified Gen. Pershing that any movement of his command other than in a northerly direction would be construed as a hostile act, aroused no apprehension among army officers here tonight. It was asserted that the expeditionary command is amply prepared to care for itself in any eventuality.

A compact line of communication extending from the border at Columbus, N. M., to Naniquipa, about two hundred and eighty miles south has been drawn in the last few weeks. Huge quantities of food, forage, ammunition and other supplies have been concentrated at the field headquarters at Naniquipa and at the field bases at El Valle and Colonia Dublan. It was pointed out also that beyond occasional sorties after marauding bandits the American troops in Mexico had been inactive for several weeks.

Expect No Alteration in Policy

Washington, June 16.—There were no indications here tonight that the administration's determination to continue the campaign against bandits in Mexico would in any way be altered by Gen. Trevino's reported threat to begin hostilities if the American troops move from their present positions in any direction except toward the border.

Gen. Pershing's orders authorize him to move in any direction he finds necessary to his purposes. In the absence of Secretary Baker, who is in St. Louis, no official would predict whether these orders would be changed, but the general impression prevailed that they would not be.

There is no fear of an immediate clash however, for officials believe Gen. Pershing would avoid taking any step that might lead to serious consequences until he had communicated with Washington. Late tonight the war department had no word from him or from any other source to confirm the report of Gen. Trevino's action. Recent troop movements in Chihuahua state have led officials here to fear that the de facto commanders were preparing for some hostile move.

Enclose Troops in Gigantic V.

The Mexican forces now are distributed in detachments of considerable strength on two lines, converging from points near the border east and west of Gen. Pershing's line and meeting at a point south of his field base at Naniquipa. The effect has been to enclose the American troops in a gigantic V.

This disposition of Carranzista forces has been one of the bases of suspicion here as to his friendly intentions. While the Mexicans are so posted, officials declare they cannot be in good faith conducting any campaign against bandits, but they can keep close watch upon the movement of Gen. Pershing's men. The breaking up of these forces into small parties to scour the country for outlaws is one of the conditions which would be demanded by the United States before the American expedition would be recalled.

Army officers have no fears for

Suffragists Not Pleased.

The Democratic attempt to satisfy the suffragists with the plank incorporated in the platform seems to have been wholly unsatisfactory. The suffragists were not entirely pleased with the suffrage declaration at the Chicago convention, but the leaders declare it was incomparably more sincere and far-reaching than the Democratic plank on the same subject. In fact, they say the St. Louis declaration was so ambiguous and vague that they can hardly understand its meaning.

The Railroad Crisis.

With the interest created in national politics, the country is forgetting a most serious situation that is presented to the American people—the crisis in the affairs of the railroads. The managers of the railroads have refused the demands of employees for an eight hour day, and the employees thru their vastly influential organizations, are insisting that they cannot recede from the position taken. Railroads maintain that to grant the increase would practically ruin them on the basis of present freight rates, and the employees maintain that the overtime charges are intended not to increase

IMPROVIDENCE

The country's being painted red by cheerful, careless lads, who never look a day ahead, but blow in all their seeds. Today they have abundant health, and sickness seems afar; today they're earning goodly wealth, so why not buy a car? The sage rebukes them with a sigh, and says, "Be safe and sane, and while the weather's fair and dry, prepare, my sons, for rain." In vain his noble words are said; they list with scornful look, and beg that he will soak his head, in some convenient nook. And then they make the village hum with their resounding mirth; but sickness comes, reverses come, to every man on earth. And when the luck is breaking rank, how bitterly they say, "We have no kopecks in the bank, and here's the rainy day!" If you've a package in the bank, you do not fear the worst, when Fortune gives you nose a yank, and gets you back a ver.

company expenses but to avoid the overtime service. The great duty presents itself to the government in this case to take some means or other of avoiding a strike, which, if it occurred, would bring not only great losses to the railway men themselves, but would paralyze the business and industry of the country and work incalculable damage to the public.

Senator Ollie James in his convention speech at St. Louis quite cleverly turned the statement frequently made critically, that President Wilson is a school teacher. The senator declared that President Wilson is a teacher and that during his administration he has been teaching the world new lessons in broad minded patriotism—that the patriotism of today does not include mere love of one's own country, and further, that might does not make right. The senator's speech, with its fervid oratory, was about the only fervid thing in the whole convention.

The glad news comes from the east that George W. Perkins, high priest of the former Progressive party, has been holding a series of conferences with Colonel Roosevelt and Governor Whitman. No statements have been given out as to just exactly what was done or said at those conferences, but the very fact that these leaders "once so wide apart and differing" have been together in good news enough for the rank and file of the Republican party, indicating clearly as it does that the get together spirit which has been nurtured and nourished for months past is flourishing in a very proper way.

The Cost of Living

While we are bemoaning the high cost of living, some satisfaction should come from the knowledge that lumber for building a residence costs no more than it did forty-four years ago. In proof of this statement a speaker before the Alton board of trade produced a lumber bill dated in 1872, and the prices charged then could be readily duplicated now. The trouble is that most people want larger houses than they built in those days and must have types of architecture and certain features which make building more expensive. Then there is the admitted greater cost of labor now than was true in 1872.

There isn't so very much to this high cost of living talk if the people of the present day would only make their manner of living accord with the customs of years gone by. The more living cost is discussed the more widely spread becomes the belief that the retail credit system is quite largely responsible for increased living cost. If the merchants in every community could buy everything for cash and sell everything on the same basis, there would come a decided lowering of prices schedules and everybody would be benefited.

Anniversary of War Declaration.

Tomorrow will be the 104th anniversary of the Declaration of war against England, which brought the contest known as the War of 1812. That opinions varied at that time, and considerable opposition was shown toward the action of President Madison, is a matter of history. "Madison had challenged a danger more serious than he ever imagined," wrote Henry Adams in his History of the United States, "for he stood alone in the world in the face of victorious England."

"That the war was as just and necessary as any war ever waged seemed so evident to Americans of another generation that only with an effort could modern readers grasp the reason for the bitter opposition of large and respectable communities which left the government bankrupt and nearly severed the Union; but if students of national history can bear with patience the labor of re-reading in mind the threads of negotiations which President Madison so thoroughly tangled before breaking, they can partially enter into the feelings of citizens who held themselves aloof from Madison's war."

Bryan Still Lives Politically.

After the newspaper talk that Bryan would be only an insignificant reporter at the Democratic convention, the insistent demand from delegates that he speak must have been gratifying to the former "peerless leader." No less gratifying was the manner in which he was presented by the chairman who termed him "the greatest Democrat in America." Those who feared that Bryan might sound some discordant note if called upon for a speech found their judgment mistaken, for the address made to the faithfulness to the Wilson administration and the Democratic party, and was characterized here and there with the old time Bryan oratory, which has ruled various Democratic gatherings in the past.

Before the civic club in St. Louis during the convention Bryan's address was directed mainly against extensive preparedness and again he voiced the sentiment that "We never can build a permanent peace of terrorism; international questions must be settled by the same common sense that settles the affair of a neighborhood." This thought of Bryan's has much of broad Christianity in it, but the sentence is not in the language of the world. Such a position of idealism is just as puzzling to some governments of the old world as the Mexicans found some of the lofty and altruistic utterances in President Wilson's declaration about the relations between the United States and Mexico.

Judge Edward Doocey of Pittsfield was in Jacksonville Friday on the way home from St. Louis, where he went to attend the Democratic convention.

MRS. MARY V. HAMPTON DEAD

AT HOME IN MEREDOSIA

Passes Away Friday Morning After Long Illness—Elmer Starks III in Kirksville.

Meredosia, Ill., June 16 — The death of Mrs. Mary Virginia Hampton occurred at the home of her daughter, Mrs. G. A. Graham in Meredosia Friday morning about five o'clock.

Mrs. Hampton was the daughter of Dr. M. H. and Almira Mauck of Naples and was born in that city June 18, 1851. In 1875 she was married to Dr. Lee Carey of Peoria. To this union one daughter was born, Mrs. G. A. Graham of Meredosia. The husband's death occurred in 1883. The deceased was again married in 1901 to J. W. Hampton of Mt. Sterling where they made their home. Mrs. Hampton had been in poor health for the past two years and had been a constant sufferer for the past four months. Her desire was to be removed from her home in Mt. Sterling to the home of her daughter, Mrs. G. A. Graham in Meredosia and her request was complied with April 18. She was a consistent member of the Presbyterian church and filled the office of president of the W. C. T. U. in Mt. Sterling. She is survived by her husband J. W. Hampton of Mt. Sterling, one daughter Mrs. G. A. Graham and granddaughter Kathryn Graham of Meredosia, one brother, W. B. Mauck of Dixon, Mo., and Mrs. Grace Quinlan of Springfield.

The remains were taken on the Wabash to Mt. Sterling Friday morning where the funeral was held at 10 o'clock from the Presbyterian church in charge of Rev. P. Raymond Powers, pastor of the Methodist church of that city.

Interment in city cemetery. Mrs. Grace Quinlan of Springfield, Mrs. C. J. Davis of Timewell, Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Graham and daughter, Kathryn, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Dunn of Meredosia accompanied the remains to Mt. Sterling.

Elmer Starks III
Mr. and Mrs. Louis Starks received a message Thursday from Kirksville, Mo., stating that their son Elmer was seriously ill and to come at once. They left on the afternoon Wabash for the above city.

It's a big load off one's mind to know that his storage battery is working right. Our expert service is an assurance of good starting and lighting.

Use Care in Starting

Free inspection of any battery at any time

Most all of us have gone along the street at some time or other, and heard a motor churn and churn under the power of an electric starter without any apparent results.

This is one of the most frequent causes of storage battery trouble according to a service representative of the Willard Storage Battery Co. He explained that very few motorists seemed to realize the immense amount of electrical power which is required to turn a motor, and what a considerable amount of driving at charging speed is necessary to restore same amount of current to the battery.

A little care in operating the self-starter will obviate this trouble. The driver should always make sure that the starting switch is thrown before attempting to operate the self-starter. Sometimes the gasoline tank is empty and under such conditions no amount of cranking would start the motor. The ignition button should always be pressed in firmly and all wire connections should be tight. Occasionally the gasoline mixture is too weak and on most cars this can be adjusted from the dash. The coil and distributor should be kept perfectly dry in order for the current to reach the spark plugs.

DEMOCRATS D PT
PLATFORM; ADJOURN

fused by the manner of its presentation.
Finally Senator Stone yielded to Senator Pittman of Nevada, one of the suffrage champions.
The crowd wanted to howl Pittman down and shouted, "Vote, vote."
"Yes, I know you want to vote," Pittman bawled at his opponents, "you'd rather do anything else than hear the truth."
"Are you men who are willing to hear women denounced afraid to hear a man say something in their behalf? I want to appeal to you to give your sisters and daughters and mothers the right to vote."
"What's that got to do with this?" chorused the delegates.
Finally, ignoring lesser outbreaks and shouting above the din and confusion, Pittman managed to get through with his speech.

Walsh Saves President's Plank.
It remained for Senator Walsh to pull the fat out of the fire and save the administration plank. In an impassioned speech he swept aside the smaller questions which had been injected into the fight, told the delegates that President Wilson himself knew the plank was in the platform and considered it essential there for party victory.

"Whatever your opinions may be," he said, "we shall never be anything but a discordant and divided party unless we surrender some of our convictions to the wisdom of a majority. Here you are confronted, as one of our famous leaders said, with a condition, not a theory. The twelve suffrage states represent 91 votes in the electoral college. Every political party has made this declaration in some form or other. It becomes a simple question of whether you will incur the enmity of these women. There is no possibility of losing a single vote if you adopt this majority plank, because every other party has done the same."

"I ask you," he cried, "if you're going to put a resolution in here that's a lie. You can't adopt this minority report without stultifying yourselves."

Senator Walsh then explained that the president knew about the suffrage plank and added:
"He believes it vital to his success that it stay there. I ask you with all the fervor of my being, who is there here who is wiser or more patriotic than he?"

Thunder Mixes with Shouts.
While the fight had been going on, a thunderstorm burst and when the row down on the convention floor was at its height the storm reached its climax. The booming of the thunder mixed with the roaring shouts on the floor and the clatter caused by the rain on the roof almost drowned out the speakers.

The storm ceased just as Senator Walsh finished his speaking and the closing words of his plea for the administration plank swept a change of sentiment over the crowd as welcome to the suffrage as the wave of cool refreshing air that poured down into the hot, reeking coliseum.

There were renewed cries of "vote, vote," but they were not shouts for the defeat of the plank. As the clerks called the roll of states the votes toppled into the column supporting the plank as the committee had written it so fast that the defeat of the substitute was assured before the call had gone to dozen states. At the close of the roll call the whole platform as written was adopted, and after disposing of some formalities, the convention adjourned sine die at 2:11 o'clock.

JOHN C. McKEON DIES
New York, June 17.—John C. McKeon, vice president of the National Park Bank of this city, died today at his country home at Hempstead after a long illness. He is survived by his widow and a sister.

Mr. McKeon was born at Joliet, Ill., 56 years ago. At the age of 33 he was appointed by James H. Eckels, comptroller of the currency under President Cleveland, a national bank examiner with headquarters in Chicago. He was at that time the youngest examiner in the country.

AUTO TRIP TO MICHIGAN

UNITED STATES TROOPS ENGAGE BAND OF MEXICAN BANDITS

BROWNSVILLE, Tex., June 16.—United States troops came upon a band of between 25 and 30 Mexican bandits about ten miles east of San Benito, Texas, late tonight and after exchanging a few shots the Mexicans scattered. It is reported three Mexicans were killed. So far as known there were no American casualties.

The troops engaged came from San Benito. Two companies of the Twenty-sixth Infantry were immediately dispatched in automobiles from Harlingen, Tex., to Olmito ten miles north of Brownsville in an effort to cut off the bandits, who at midnight, were headed for the Rio Grande.

A troop of cavalry also was sent from Fort Brown to Fresno tract, fourteen miles north of Brownsville, where a Mexican, late tonight was robbed of a team of horses by Mexican bandits.

Troops Remain on Mexican Soil Only Two Hours—Find no Trace of Bandits.

San Antonio, Tex., June 16.—Major Alonzo Gray led his little command of cavalry across the river into Mexico today in search of the bandits who raided his camp yesterday at San Ignacio, but remained on Mexican soil only two hours. He crossed the border six miles below San Ignacio, scouting along the Mexican side of the river for a short distance and returned again to the American side. He found no trace of the bandits. On the American side three of the bandits were captured and the body of one was found, bringing the total of Mexican dead to nine.

More detailed reports made by Major Gray today showed that the three men of troop M, who were killed, were shot as they were leaving their tents to go into the trenches. The men of troop I that came to the rescue of the entrenched men advanced in a skirmish line, firing from the brush as they advanced.

The country about San Ignacio was reported quiet today and army officers were without information indicating De La Rosa's men were planning another raid.

Capture Three Bandits
Brownsville, Tex., June 16.—Three of the bandits who attacked American soldiers at San Ignacio were captured late yesterday on the Mexican side of the border by troops under command of Gen. Alfredo Ricaut, and his forces are now pursuing the scattered bandits in every direction along that section of the border, according to an announcement made by Gen. Ricaut today.

FRANKLIN MEN RETURN FROM CONVENTION
William Rees, G. J. Dowell, James L. Seymour and Fred Burch of Franklin and Arthur Henderson of this city have returned from St. Louis, where they attended the Democratic national convention.

MEXICAN GENERAL WARNS PERSHING

the safety of Gen. Pershing's forces no matter what develops. The expedition is amply supplied and Gen. Pershing recently inspected in person the disposition of his men. The strategic points at the base camps and along the line of communication are protected by entrenchments.

The report of Gen. Trevino's action gave rise to renewed speculation as to the course to be taken by President Wilson to make certain the safety of the border. The entire national guard in effect has been under waiting orders for several weeks, and by some it is thought a strong force of guardsmen would be promptly ordered to the border if official dispatches confirmed the Cuernavaca City story.

Reports are Confirmed
Laredo, Tex., June 16.—Reports that an American military attempt to cross the Rio Grande in the Nuevo Laredo district in pursuit of bandits would meet with energetic resistance, were confirmed here tonight on what is believed to be an impeccable authority. Carranza troops in Nuevo Laredo, it is said, have instructions to put up an energetic fight to resist any possible crossing into Mexico of American forces, regardless of the cause.

Hold Troops Under Arms
El Paso, Texas, June 16.—All American troops stationed in El Paso and its environs were ordered to quarters tonight to be held under arms until further notice. The orders followed reports to military headquarters that placards printed in Spanish had been posted in Juarez instructing citizens to gather at designated points daily to receive military instruction, that they may be prepared to repel possible invasion. The notice was signed by Jesus Valdez, private citizen, who said he wished his people to "be prepared in the event of a break with the United States." At the office of Gen. George Bell, Jr., Commandant, no explanation of the order was given, it being asserted that the orders were "merely precautionary measures."

EIGHTEEN HUNDRED CONVICTS
WITNESS CIRCUS PERFORMANCE

JOLIET, Ill., June 16.—Eighteen hundred convicts in the state prison here were given a half holiday today to attend a circus performance given in the prison yard. It was the first time that a circus had ever been given in a prison. The prisoners, some of whom had never seen a circus, laughed and cried with delight. Joseph Trestit, 45 years old, a Cook county murderer sent here ten years ago for life, cried when rain threatened to stop the performance. Ward Michael Zimmer was given a tremendous ovation after the performance for bringing the circus to the penitentiary.

LEADERS OF MEN AND ROADS STATE
SITUATION IS NOT HOPELESS

NEW YORK, June 15.—Altho 500,000 strike ballots were ordered printed here today by the delegates of the four railroad brotherhoods, who failed to reach an agreement with the railroads in their demands for shorter hours and higher overtime pay, leaders of the men and representatives of the railroads united in the declaration that while the situation is serious, it is not hopeless. The ballots are to be delivered tomorrow and will be taken by the delegates to their homes for distribution to expedite the vote.

Both the railroad managers and the brotherhood leaders and delegates held secret day-long conferences. They discussed, it was learned, policies for their future conduct in the negotiations expected to follow the return of a strike vote.

GRANTS AUTHORITY TO ISSUE
RECEIVERS' CERTIFICATES

CHICAGO, June 16.—Authority for the issuance of $2,500,000 in receivers' certificates to pay the interest on receivers' certificates of the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific railroad failing due July 3 was given today by Federal Judge Carpenter to Jacob M. Dickinson, the receiver. In addition the judge authorized the receiver to renew or extend for a period not to exceed six months the loan of $1,600,000 made by the Bankers Trust Company failing due June 26, and the loan of $2,000,000 made by the Central Trust Company of New York which becomes due June 30.

William J. Jackson, receiver for the Chicago and Eastern Illinois railroad, was authorized by Judge Carpenter to issue $6,000,000 in receivers' certificates to replace certificates falling due July 1.

JAMES CONFERS WITH POLITICAL LEADERS
Chicago, June 16.—Dr. Edmund J. James, president of the University of Illinois was reported busy today conferring with political leaders and personal friends regarding the possibility of his becoming a candidate for the Republican nomination for governor, but he made no announcement of his plans.
He is being urged to enter the race by former Governor Charles S. Deneen and others.

HUGHES RETURNS TO HOME IN WASHINGTON FOR THE WEEK-END

G. O. P. Nominee Retires Just Before Hearing Perkins' Announcement Regarding Peace Negotiations.

WASHINGTON, June 16.—Charles E. Hughes, weary from a week of strenuous political activity in New York, returned to his home here tonight for the week-end. He retired immediately before hearing of George W. Perkins' announcement regarding peace negotiations between the Republicans and Progressives.

The nominees apparent desire to bring Progressives and Republicans into accord is understood to have been the theme of discussion in several conferences in New York between Mr. Hughes and some of the Progressive leaders, notably Everett Colby of New Jersey, Oscar S. Strauss and S. S. McClure, who called at the Hughes headquarters there. To other callers the nominee has voiced the sentiment that the interests of both Progressives and Republicans demanded that the differences should be subordinated and harmonized before the actual work of the campaign is begun.

The desirability of bringing the Progressives under the Republican standard again was discussed also. It is understood, in the long conference Tuesday night between Hughes and W. Murray Crane, chairman of the Republican National subcommittee on organization, who, in turn, is said to have conferred with other party leaders on the subject since then. None of the nominee's callers would authorize the statement that such a movement was on foot, but indications have not been lacking that peace overtures were imminent.

Upon the selection of a summer residence depends to some extent the designation of the date of Mr. Hughes' formal notification. The ceremony probably will occur at the summer home as soon after July 4 as will suit the convenience of the notification committee.

Although Mr. Hughes contemplates receiving calls from some party leaders while in Washington, he will not hold open house as he did in New York. The nominee reached Washington thoroughly tired. While in New York he seldom retired till long after midnight and was up every morning at 7 o'clock.

DEFEAT MOVE TO HAVE DEMOCRATIC COMMITTEE NAME OWN OFFICERS

St. Louis, Mo., June 16.—A resolution presented at a meeting of the National Democratic Committee tonight that the committee name its own chairman and secretary from its own membership, and that the Democratic presidential nominee be empowered to select a campaign committee and name its officers, created a sensation among the committee men gathered to effect their organization. The resolution was defeated by a vote of 46 to 3 after a debate that lasted until after midnight.

During the debate the action of President Wilson in suggesting the names of the officers of the new committee was freely discussed, and National Committeeman E. H. Moore of Ohio, who presented the resolution, said that the president should not have the power to impose his will on the committee, and that "I do not want to put it in the power of any man to create a presidential dynasty."

After the resolution was defeated the following officers of the new committee were elected:

Vance M. McCormick of Pennsylvania, chairman.
Homer Cummings, of Connecticut, vice chairman.
Representative Carter Glass of Virginia, secretary.

W. W. Marsh of Iowa, treasurer.
John I. Martin, Missouri, sergeant-at-arms.

MANY SCOTT COUNTY PEOPLE
PLAN TO ATTEND RE-UNION

Gillham and Gordon Families Will Gather Today for Social Time at Nichols Park—Other Winchester News Notes.

Winchester, Ill., June 16.—Many members of the Gordon and Gillham families, residing in this vicinity, plan to go to Jacksonville tomorrow for the family reunion at Nichols park. Dinner will be served at noon and after a social afternoon supper will be served.

The two families have almost two hundred members in Morgan and Scott counties and if weather conditions continue favorable, a large attendance is expected. Judge and Mrs. J. B. Gordon of Seattle, Wash., and Miss Louise Gordon of Texas, will be among the visitors from a distance.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren North have returned from a short stay in Champaign. They were accompanied by their son, Clyde North, who was graduated this week from the college of agriculture.

Miss Freda Vortman returned Thursday from Jacksonville, where she attended a house party given by Miss Grace Van Houten.

Miss Lelia Hatfield and Miss Mabel Haley are here from Naples for a visit with Miss Anna Nieman.

The Young Peoples' Society of Winchester Presbyterian church gave a social in the chapel Friday evening. The young people are seeking to promote the growth of the society, which was organized but a short time ago.

Miss Frances Coultas is giving a house party at her home, northeast of the city. The guests are Misses Frances Wallace, Nellie Herring, Louise Leach, Mildred Burns, Katherine Brengle and Margaret Priest.

Ed. Rohrig has announced a closing out sale in preparation for a general remodeling of his store building.

George Mader returned Friday morning from Oxford, O., where he was engaged in the study of music.

Mrs. J. Laura Hume was recently adjudged insane and taken to Jacksonville State hospital. On the committee which had the case in charge were Dr. H. H. Fletcher, Dr. William O'Reilly and Dr. L. R. Day.

The annual appropriation ordinance, passed by the Winchester city council, provides for expenses for the year totalling $14,000. Among the larger items mentioned are $3,000 for payment of waterworks bonds and interest; $2,000 for improvement and maintenance of waterworks; $2,000 for lighting and $1,800 for salaries of city officers.

SENATOR BURLEIGH OF MAINE
DIES OF ACUTE INDIGESTION

AUGUSTA, Maine, June 16.—United States Senator Edwin C. Burleigh died tonight at his residence here.

Senator Burleigh's death was due to acute indigestion. He was ill only a few hours. His wife died a month ago in Washington.

Mr. Burleigh was governor of this state four years, from 1889 to 1893. In 1897 he was elected to Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Congressman Seth L. Milliken and served until the Democratic landslide of 1910 when he was defeated. He was elected to the Senate from Maine for a six year term by the legislature of 1913.

Baking Helps

Learn to Regulate the Heat of Your Oven

By Mrs. Janet McKenzie Hill, Editor of the Boston Cooking School Magazine

There is just one way to make your cakes rise high and keep an even surface. Have your oven moderate at first, until the cake is fully risen; then increase the heat, so as to brown it over quickly. Extreme heat stiffens the dough. If you stiffen the outside of the cake before the rising is complete, you stop the rising process. Then the leavening gas, forming inside, will bulge up the center, and while the dough is still soft, and spoil the shape of the cake.

NOTE—Biscuits or other pastries made from stiff dough, that are cut into shapes for the oven, bake in a hot oven. This is because the cut surfaces of the dough do not seal over, but rather leave the pores open, allowing the leavening gas to escape and the heat to penetrate readily. Small ovens cool quickly; therefore they should be made several degrees hotter than a larger oven, and the less the door is opened the better. Do not attempt to bake bread and pastry together. Bread requires prolonged, moderate baking—pastry the reverse.

Have a strong underheat for baking powder preparations, especially pastry.

These are only a few of the many baking helps found in the K C Cook's Book—a copy of which may be secured by sending the colored certificate taken from a 25-cent can of K C Baking Powder to the JAGUERS MFG. CO., Chicago.

Every Woman Should Use Every Week Shampoo

To Preserve Her Hair

If women would use an Anti-Septic Oil Shampoo instead of the soaps and shampoos now so commonly used, they would improve rather than injure the delicate hair plants.

The hair plant is an oil plant and to wash it with soaps or shampoos containing free alkali works great injury. It not only cuts the natural oil of the hair but it destroys the fatty roots of the hair plant, causing the hair to come out.

EVERY WEEK ANTI-SEPTIC OIL SHAMPOO cleanses and purifies the scalp, dissolves and removes dandruff, opens the clogged hair cells and leaves the scalp soft and healthy.

It leaves the hair soft, lustrous, fluffy and easy to handle.

Excellent for men and children also. A large bottle holding 64 teaspoonfuls 50c at

MAYBERRY WALTER'S FUNERAL WAS HELD FRIDAY

Large Gathering of Friends and Relatives—Rev. S. W. Flaggge Had Charge of Services.

The funeral of the late James Mayberry Walter was held in the family residence Friday forenoon in the presence of a large number of friends and relatives of the deceased. Conspicuous among the number were several who had known the deceased the greater part of his life and esteemed him highly. A goodly deputation of Urania Lodge 243, I. O. O. F., was also present. At the time of his death Mr. Walter had belonged to the lodge more years than any other member.

Beautiful and appropriate music was furnished by Mrs. Wallace Brockman, Miss Cora Graham, Messrs. Thos. H. Rapp and William H. Gillham, who sang "One Sweetly Solemn Thought," "Beautiful Isles of Somewhere," and "Go Bury thy Sorrow."

Walter, took charge. He selected for several passages of scripture and offered a fervent prayer, after which Rev. G. W. Flaggge, pastor of Mr. Walter, took charge. He selected for his text Job 5:26, "Thou shalt come to thy grave in a full age like a shock of corn cometh in his season."

Of the discourse a few thoughts are presented. They are the words of promise and prophesy, and especially suitable when taking into consideration the life of Bro. Walter. He had passed the stages of childhood, youth and manhood and had ripened for the harvest of eternity. We are thankful when our dear ones pass from us in a peaceful and happy manner from this life to that of the unseen world. We are prone to ask why all persons may not live to be so old, but there are many reasons to be given. Our blessed Lord and Master laid down His work in the prime of manhood, when it seemed as if he could have done so much more had he lived to old age. We often wonder why a person is taken from earth when yet comparatively young. If a person lives a useful life, its extent is not to be measured by the flight of years.

"Our departed brother gave the full measure of usefulness in his life. He gave all he could to those dear to him and to those about him. His life is measured and depicted by the words of the text. We bear him to the grave and were he not a Christian that might be all, but his grave is like that of his blessed Master, only a portal to realms of eternal bliss."

"The couch on which our Savior lay in the tomb is like that on which our brother will lie, and so it is an honor to serve the Redeemer who gave His life that we might never die. If we could actually have the identical couch on which He lay, how proud we would be. We would make a journey to Palestine for the honor of reclining on that couch."

But the grave of a true Christian is like the couch of the Master, for He has taken away the terror of death and made the grave of a Christian like His last resting place. The grave of a Christian is not dark and gloomy, but leads to the realms of eternal bliss; to realms where pain and sorrow are unknown.

"The Master lay in the tomb only for a short time and then arose triumphant over death. We have machines to sail, to fly and to go many places, yet how far short of being able to go where we like, but when Christ arose from the dead He could appear as he chose. He held the eyes of those with whom He walked to Emmaus and was known as He said grace. He could appear to the eleven when the door was closed, and He could tell Thomas to thrust the hand into the pierced side. So when we are through with our mortal bodies we shall be able to do many things now impossible, if we die in His. We are now only in the shadow of the universe. We do not look directly at the sun in all its splendor; it would ruin our eyes. We see it visible by the light which has traveled years to reach us. If we could go to those far away worlds this would seem dark indeed. We know there is a blessed world to which our brother has gone. We know his toil is all over; his trials and sorrows are at an end and a glorious eternity with those he loved will be his. No wonder this life in comparative darkness is wearisome. A night worker once remarked that the early part of the shift wasn't so hard, but the last half of the night was indeed wearisome. So the last years of life are dull and wearisome but the happy ending is joy and peace and the soul steps out into the eternity in the fullness of peace and joy."

At the close of the services a large procession followed the remains to their last resting place in Diamond Grove cemetery. The bearers were Messrs. Stephen Dunlap, J. T. Osborne, Stansfield Baldwin, Thos. H. Rapp, Herman Weber and John Moss.

The many beautiful flowers were cared for by Miss Flora Hall, Miss Nina Wright and Miss Emma Hunter.

WELL KNOWN METHODIST MINISTER DIED AT URBANA FRIDAY

Rev. M. W. Everhart was for Years Prominent in Methodist Conference—Lived in Jacksonville for Five Years.

Rev. Marion W. Everhart, a former resident of this city died at his home in Urbana Friday morning, aged 74 years. The Rev. Mr. Everhart was in charge of West Jacksonville District and resided in this city from 1887 to 1892. For a time he lived on Hardin avenue and later on West College street.

Deceased was born near New Comertown, Ohio, June 28, 1842. He was converted at Hopewell, Ohio, when seventeen years of age. June 28, 1864 he was united in marriage to Miss Sarah Isabelle Wyandt and they came at once to Illinois.

He was received on trial in the Illinois conference that fall and appointed to the Windsor charge. Subsequently he served pastorates at Friends Creek, Cerro Gordo, Paxton, Tuscola, Farmer City, Hillsboro, Griggsville, Monticello, Beardstown, White Hall, Mattoon, Champaign, Lincoln, Pana, Clinton, Carlinville and Gibson City. He was also presiding elder for one full term each on the Champaign district and the West Jacksonville district.

Owing to a serious breakdown in health, Rev. Mr. Everhart asked for the retired relation in the fall of 1902. Since that time he has resided in Urbana.

Two years ago Rev. and Mrs. Everhart celebrated their golden wedding anniversary and the Rev. F. B. Madden now of this city read a unique and beautiful wedding ritual that he wrote for the occasion.

Mr. Madden began his pastorate under Rev. Everhart when the latter was presiding elder of the Champaign district in 1885. Since that time the families have been closely associated.

By special request Mr. Madden will officiate at the funeral which will be held in Urbana Sunday afternoon with burial at Neoga Ill. The Jacksonville minister expects to leave for Urbana today.

The Rev. Mr. Everhart was a man of unusual power and ability and for over a third of a century was one of the leaders of the Illinois conference. He is survived by his widow and the following children: Frank Everhart of Urbana, Ward Everhart of Hastings, Neb., Rollin Everhart of New York, who is in the ministry and in charge of the anti saloon work in the state of New York and editor of the Anti-Saloon league paper; Leon Everhart, city attorney of Urbana and Mrs. Lois Hanford of Chicago.

Miss Geneva Topliff of Franklin left yesterday for Alton, where she will visit friends.

QUESTIONS ON THE SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON.

By Rev. T. S. Linscott, D. D.

June 25.

5. Verse 22. What reliance can be placed upon the cries of an excited crowd, and in this case, why should they have been angry with Paul and Silas?

6. To what extent, if any do religious differences make people angry with each other today?

7. Verse 23. Why does God permit of such cruelty to his faithful servants, as illustrated in this case of Paul and Silas?

8. Verse 24. On what theory do you explain the possibility of any good man in prison, lying upon a raw back, with his feet fast in the stocks, and at the dark dismal hour of midnight, singing for joy?

9. In looking back over the cruel suffering of this time, and their experience in prison, would Paul and Silas be sorry or glad, at the retrospect and why?

10. Verse 25. Can you mention any circumstance so calamitous to a Christian, that prayer and praise cannot turn it into joy and victory?

11. Verse 26. Was this earthquake the result of what happened in the Philippian jail, or was it a natural coincidence only? Why?

DISTRICT COURT TAKES MANSFIELD FROM THE CUSTODY OF POLICE

WANSAS CITY, Mo., June 16.—William Mansfield, arrested recently in Kansas City, Kan., and held for investigation at the request of authorities of Red Oak, Ia., was taken from the custody of the police placed in the county jail in default of $10,000 bail. A warrant charging him with murder in connection with the deaths of six members of the Moore family in Villisca, Ia., in 1912, arrived today from Iowa but neither it nor a fugitive warrant which O. J. Gillette, prosecuting attorney of Montgomery County, Ia., swore out, was served. Mansfield was jailed on a state charge which was lodged against him. Hearing on a habeas corpus writ taken out by his attorney was set for June 20 and meanwhile the Iowa authorities are expected to start extradition proceedings. Mr. Gillette left for Iowa tonight after announcing his intention to take steps for extradition at once.

Mrs. George W. Imgrund has gone to Denver, Colo., for a month's visit with relatives.

MORTON HAS FAST TEAM.

The manager of the Morton baseball team which plays Jacksonville Sunday has lots of confidence in his team. A few days ago he sent the local management the batting order of the team. In the letter he had the following paragraph:

"Wishing you abundance of success, and assuring you that with the above aggregation in the field against you it will either result in a farce in our favor or a hard tussle for both teams, with best wishes, I am, Very truly yours, C. E. Burger, 'Manager Morton Baseball Club'."

Morton has a good team but the locals think that when the game is over the members of the Morton team will have a different opinion of themselves. On the dope the locals have nothing to fear from Morton.

Jacksonville beat the Old Taverners of Peoria, 5 to 2 in nine innings. It took Morton fifteen innings to beat the same team, the exact score is not now recalled. Jacksonville took 12 innings to beat Alta, 1 to 0 while Morton turned the trick 1 to 0 in nine innings. It must be remembered that Chambers who pitched the twelve innings against Jacksonville, on the following Tuesday, Decoration day, two days afterward hurled the game against Morton. Aside from the Edwards game Jacksonville has been returned the winner in all of her games this season. It looks as tho no matter who wins the fans will witness the best game of the season Sunday.

ILLINOIS OSTEOPATHS NAME GALESBURG FOR 1917 CONVENTION

BLOOMINGTON, Ill., June 16.—The Illinois Osteopathic Association today decided to go into Galesburg for their convention in 1917, endorsed woman suffrage and military training in schools and universities. The following officers were elected: President, Canada Wednall, Peoria.

Vice-president, Edgar S. Comstock, Chicago.
Secretary-treasurer, Walter E. Elfrink, Chicago.
Sergeant-at-arms, J. J. Moriarity, Ottawa.

WILSON IS NOTIFIED OF HIS NOMINATION AT 1 O'CLOCK

WASHINGTON, June 15.—President Wilson was notified at 1 o'clock tonight by Secretary Tumulty that he and Vice President Marshall had been nominated by acclamation at the St. Louis convention. His only comment was: "I am very grateful." During the demonstration for the president which followed Judge Westcott's speech, a telephone wire connecting the Convention hall with the white house switchboard was opened and the president, Mrs. Wilson, Secretary Tumulty and others of the white house party listened in. The applause and the cheering could be heard very plainly.

MORE THAN 500,000 RAILROAD TRAINMEN WILL VOTE ON STRIKE

Representatives of Roads and Men Fail to Reach Agreement After Two Weeks' Conference

New York, June 16.—More than 500,000 union and non-union workers of America will vote within a month on the advisability of calling a general strike to enforce their demands for an 8-hour day and time and a half for overtime as a result of the failure by representatives of the railroads and the men to reach a settlement here today after a two weeks' conference.

Hope of adjusting the dispute thru the conference faded when the railroads submitted a tentative compromise offer to the men, granting their demands, but eliminating the majority of existing "double compensation" rules. The conference adjourned yesterday to give the railroad managers an opportunity to discuss further their stand on this point but when they met the men today they not only refused to make a specific offer covering the compensation rules, but advised that their differences be submitted either to the Interstate Commerce Commission or to a board of arbitration to operate under the provisions of the Newlands Act. The men declined both offers and the decision to take a strike vote followed.

The leaders and the 50 delegates of the four brotherhoods of trainmen, engineers, firemen and conductors who attended the conference, decided on the necessity for the strike vote at a secret meeting following the break.

A. B. Carleton, president of the Brotherhood of Railroad Conductors, announced later that the ballot will be drafted tonight and distributed to all railroad men, whether members of the Brotherhoods or not, before the close of next week.

CARLINVILLE MAN HEADS HARDWARE DEALERS
Boston, June 16.—The National Retail Hardware Dealers Association at the closing session of its annual convention today, elected Charles T. Woodward, of Carlinville, Ill., president and selected St. Louis as the next convention city. M. L. Corey of Argos, Ind., was elected secretary.

ONLY ONE BID SUBMITTED

Springfield, Ill., June 16.—Much to the surprise of the Illinois and Michigan canal commissioners, there was but one bid to be opened this morning for the lease of the water power dam at Joliet. This was submitted by Andrew Cook of Chicago. His bid will not be made public at this time. Mr. Cook is understood to represent the Chicago Sanitary district Trustees.

TRADE CURRENTS SEEM TO INDICATE FURTHER GRADUAL CONTRACTION

Situation Except in Comparative Few Lines, is Strongly Buttressed by Filled Up Order Books.

New York, June 16.—Brooklynets today will say:
"Trade currents, following the reaching of maximum expansion, seemed to indicate a further gradual contraction, at least as regards new buyers. But the situation except in a comparatively few lines—namely, for instance, is strongly buttressed by filled up order books which insure activity in industrial quarters for some time to come. Lower ocean freight rates, increased dividends, evidences of renewed heavy buying of steel for foreign account and the perfection of a $50,000,000 loan to Russia are also significant features. Notwithstanding, that the time for season quiet has arrived, activity in essentials is marked, the unattended of course, by symptoms of feverishness such as characterized purchases awhile ago. Instead there has come orderly, steady buying, with evidences of a prudent disposition to eliminate upbidding as well as to guard against sudden downward shifts in prices."
"Weekly bank clearings $1,515,913,000."

FAVOR CORNELL AND SYRACUSE

Poughkeepsie, N. Y., June 16.—Oarsmen from Cornell, Columbia, Syracuse and Pennsylvania will compete over the Hudson River course here tomorrow in the annual regatta of the Intercollegiate Rowing Association. For the first time in a term of years no Western university is to be represented in the regatta this year, California having changed her early decision to participate and Wisconsin being unrepresented for the first time in several years.

Three championship events are to make up the regatta program—the varsity eights, the junior varsity eights, and the freshmen eights, and the light for premier honors promise to be full of interest and excitement. Experts who have watched the work of the various crews in practices are of the opinion that the contests will be very close. Cornell and Syracuse are rated the strongest crews for the big race. Cornell is favored not so much because of the showing made thus far this season, but rather on account of the long string of victories that the Ithaca institution has rolled up in the intercollegiate regattas in the past. Syracuse seldom has failed to give a good account of herself and her chances this year are rated unusually high by the experts because it is the only crew that has not suffered a defeat this season. Columbia has rounded out in far better shape than her early season form promised.

The first race, the junior eights, will be rowed at 4 o'clock. At 5:15 p. m. the freshmen race will follow, and then, at 6 p. m., will come the feature race of the day, the varsity eight-oared shells. All four universities will be represented in each race.

LOS ANGELES ALL DRESSED UP

Los Angeles, Cal., June 16.—No city was ever better "dressed up" to receive a company of guests than is Los Angeles in anticipation of the opening of the triennial convocation of the Knights Templar. Electricians, decorators, florists and others have been at work all week on all the prominent buildings, and the result is the most lavish and beautiful display of flags, bunting, electric lights and color imaginable. The advance guard of the plumed knights reached town today and the main army of delegates and visitors will pour into the city tomorrow and Sunday. Applications for accommodations received by the hotels indicate that the attendance will be the largest of any gathering ever entertained in Los Angeles.

NURSE RELIEVES MUCH SUFFERING

The Patient She Helped Makes Interesting Statement.

Madison, Wis.—Mrs. Oscar Day, of 1606 Monona Ave., Fair Oaks, this town, says: "Before my baby was born, I suffered terribly with womanly troubles and nervousness, and was living in a state of fear all the time. One day, an old friend of mine, who, by the way, is a nurse, and goes around to all cases, brought me a bottle of Cardui, the woman's tonic, and told me to keep on taking it right along. I did, and felt much better after the first bottle. I kept on taking it, and had as little trouble as anybody could wish for. Feeling very good now.

There never was a better medicine for women than Cardui, and I will recommend it to any one who is in need of it. This nurse uses Cardui with her patients, so it is well known all around here.

I am never without a bottle of Cardui in my home."

We urge you to try Cardui, the woman's tonic, for your troubles. It will help you over the hard places, just as it has thousands of other women.

Don't delay. Begin taking Cardui today. You won't regret it. NCB

JAMES WOOD WILL SUSTAINED BY CIRCUIT COURT FINDING

Opinion is That Only One Clause of Document Violates Law of Perpetuities—Case Will Go to Supreme Court.

Judge Burton entered an order in the Wood will case Friday sustaining the will of the late James Wood and declares that in the main it does not violate the law of perpetuities. George Wood was the complainant in the case, represented by Judge M. H. Layman, and a notice of appeal has been filed and the case is to go to the supreme court.

Mr. Wood's will disposed of property valued at about $225,000. Mrs. Wood, to whom certain properties were left, filed notice in the county court of her desire to renounce the will, and she, therefore, will take one-half of all the real estate and one-half of the personal property, and is not affected by any decision in the circuit court or which may be made in the supreme court. By renouncing the will Mrs. Wood secured a much larger share in the estate than would have been true otherwise, and the several bequests of realty made to the immediate relatives of Mr. Wood and their descendants will be considerably less because of her action.

The respondents in the case, represented by Worthington, Reeve & Green, are Ivan Wood, Richard S. Wood and James A. Peckman, as executors of the will of James Wood.

The cause was heard before Judge Jones and entry made yesterday was by Judge Burton for Judge Jones.

John J. Reeve and Fred L. Gregory appeared as guardians for the minor defendants interested. The court held "that the limitation over, mentioned in clause 3 of the will, to the descendants of the uncle and aunt of the grandchildren, Albert Stice and Bertha Stice, in case both of said grandchildren shall die without descendants or descendant, is void for remoteness and violates the rule against perpetuities; that the remainder of the provisions of the said clause 3 are valid; that the valid provisions of said clause 3 and the said void limitation over are separable; that the corpus of the estate mentioned in clause 3 is disposed of by the valid provisions of said clause; that the several life estates and the disposition of the fee can be, and are, preserved so as to give effect to the intention of the testator by sustaining the valid portions and excluding the said void limitation over in said clause 3; that no provision or provisions of said will other than the void limitation over, as contained in said clause 3, violates the rule against perpetuities."

Following this entry, notice of appeal was filed. The Wood will was drawn by J. P. Lippincott.

UNIVERSITY PAYS TRIBUTE TO MRS. SMITH

The University of Illinois has issued the following announcement about Mrs. Constance Barlow Smith, who has withdrawn from active service at the university:

"Mrs. Constance Barlow Smith, assistant professor of Public School Music in the University of Illinois, is withdrawing from active service at the close of this school year, and has taken a most practical method of showing her interest by presenting to the School of Music, as a Public School Music Seminar Library, her large collection of books, music, and charts, which has been accumulating for twenty years or more. The collection contains several hundred volumes and includes complete sets of practically all of the material published for Public Schools, besides a large number of rare editions of older works, also a large representation of operas, cantatas, etc., and works of general musical literature. It is a collection which is not only a valuable gift in itself, but of peculiar value to the earnest student of Public School Music, and it forms what is perhaps the largest library of its kind in connection with any institution in the country. This collection will be housed in the library of the new Music building which the trustees of the University are erecting with the proceeds of the gift by Captain Thomas J. Smith for a memorial in honor of his wife. The building will be the most complete building of its kind in any American university and the gift of Mrs. Smith will form the nucleus of a complete collection on public school music."

Mrs. Smith founded the department of Public School Music in the Music School of the University of Illinois and has been the head of that department since 1903. She was a daughter of James S. Barlow, a distinguished musician and teacher of Jacksonville, Illinois; was supervisor of music in the city schools of Jacksonville for eight years; is the author of many articles and discussions of public school music matters; and was for some time chairman of the standing committee on music of the Illinois Federation of Woman's Clubs.

WILL MAKE TRIP IN FORD.

William B. Keel of Kansas City who has been in this city since April, left this morning at five o'clock, for a trip to Billings, Montana, in his Ford car. He will be accompanied by his wife. They will take the Burlington trail and with good luck will make the trip in about two weeks. Mr. Keel took a trip to Hannibal Thursday, and on his return he claims to have been the only traveler to tackle a stretch of deep mud. The stretch was eighteen miles long but as Mr. Keel expressed it, "The little old Ford rambled right along." Mr. and Mrs. Keel will spend the summer in the west.

SOUTHERN STUDENT CONFERENCE

Blue Ridge, N. C., June 16.—The Southern Student Conference, representing a constituency of missionary students and workers from many states, assembled here today for its silver jubilee or twenty-fifth annual session.

The conference meets under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A., and Dr. John R. Mott, international secretary of that organization, presides.

The gathering is to be divided into department conferences for college professors and college pastors and principals of high schools. Prominent among the speakers who will be heard are Dr. H. F. Williams of the Presbyterian Mission Board, Dr. H. H. Horne of the University of New York, Dr. E. M. Poter of Furman University, Dr. E. O. Brown of Vanderbilt University, Jackson Davis of the General Education Board, and B. G. Alexander, Southern executive secretary of the Y. M. C. A.

BABY WEEK IN CHICAGO

Chicago, Ill., June 16.—One hundred organizations interested in infant welfare and social betterment, have co-operated in the arrangements for a summer baby-saving campaign, which was inaugurated in this city today and will be continued for one week. Among the organizations actively interested are the public health department, women's clubs, religious societies, medical associations, infant welfare clubs and business men's organizations. During the week the "message of salvation," which is to insure the welfare of Chicago's new generation, will be preached from pulpit and school platform and will be delivered in a dozen languages by a corps of 500 speakers who will cover the city in automobiles from corner to corner.

LAUNCHING TO FEATURE NAVY DAY

Philadelphia, Pa., June 16.—Many of the inside workings of Uncle Sam's navy will be revealed to the public tomorrow at the fourth annual Navy Day celebration at the Philadelphia Navy Yard. The public has been invited to attend the celebration and to inspect the war craft of all sizes and descriptions now at the yard. One of the leading features of the day's program will be the launching of the transport Henderson, the first vessel of its type ever built at the yard.

NORTH DAKOTA ELKS

Dickinson, N. D., June 16.—The annual convention of the North Dakota Elks, which opened here today, has attracted hundreds of members of the antlered herd from every nook and corner of the state. The program provides for daily business sessions during the two days of the convention. These will be interspersed by numerous features of entertainment prepared for the visitors by the local lodge.

Mariam Rutland of Ashland was operated on at Our Savior's hospital yesterday morning.

JUDGE BURTON CONDUCTED CITIZENSHIP HEARING

Three Made Application For Final Papers—Court Pointed to Need For Loyal Citizenship.

An interesting ceremonial took place in the circuit court Friday when Judge Burton had the hearing for three persons seeking citizenship in the United States. The three mentioned were Percy A. Jenkinson, John H. Schleuter and Samuel Friedman. Mr. Jenkinson came to Morgan county from England, Mr. Schleuter from Germany and Mr. Friedman from Russia. The final entry granting citizenship was made with reference to Mr. Schleuter and will be to Mr. Jenkinson as soon as the testimony of Ralph V. Dunlap is received. Mr. Dunlap was out of the city yesterday. Some additional facts must be secured for Mr. Friedman's papers.

The ceremony, in past years usually of quite a perfunctory kind, was made impressive by Judge Burton, who in addition to requiring the answers outlined by the statute, made a brief address to the applicants for citizenship, impressing them with what real loyalty to the American flag means. He also emphasized some of the duties of citizenship in the larger sense, impressing his auditors with the thought that the valuable citizen is one who gives to, as well as receives from, his country. In Morgan county, where the percent of foreign population is very small, there are comparatively few applicants for final naturalization, but in Macoupin county, where Judge Burton lives there are scores of applications each year. This is because there are so many foreign born miners working in Macoupin county. Consequently Judge Burton is accustomed to this ceremonial and he never fails to make it impressive.

COURT ORDERS

In the divorce proceeding of Charles E. Beerup vs. Mary Jane Beerup, the cause was dismissed by the complainant at his costs.

In the partition proceedings of Mary E. Lazenby et al vs. Ida M. Lazenby, demurrer and exceptions were overruled and rule on adult defendants was entered to make answer by June 17.

Elizabeth Carter, who was under indictment for arson along with John Carter, after being fully advised as to her rights, entered a plea of guilty and was placed by the court in charge of J. O. Priest as probation officer.

BOILS AND PIMPLES DANGEROUS

S. S. S. Your Remedy.

Modern science has proven that boils and carbuncles, pimples and unsightly skin blemishes, are signals of diseased blood. Scaly skin and itching of Eczema, Scrofula, rashes—all skin diseases are aggravated by bad blood—it's the infected blood that's dangerous. Don't wait for the boils. If you have pimples and blotches, take instant action. Pimples tell you that your blood is filled with impurities. You must wash out your blood, and stimulate it to healthy action with Nature's own blood tonic, S. S. S. It is the standard blood purifier of the world. Don't use drugs, elements, salves. S. S. S. reaches the blood, drives out the impurities. It makes healthy perspiration—the poison is literally sweated out through the skin. Boils, blotches, Eczema and the Scrofula indications disappear. It does what salves and lotions can never do—it goes to the root of the trouble by reaching the blood. Your skin becomes clear and you soon feel the vigor of perfect health. S. S. DECISION IS GIVEN
IN DAVIES CASE

HEIRS IN AMERICA AND ENGLAND BOTH RECOGNIZED

Judge Burton Finds All Children of Llewellyn Davies Entitled to Share in Estate—Master in Chancery's Report is Upheld—Ohio Divorce Not Proven

A decision given by Judge Burton in the circuit court Friday finds the English and American claimants to the Llewellyn Davies estate as being entitled to equal shares. In other words, the court declared that Mr. Davies' children in Wales and in this country have equal rights. The opinion filed by the court sustained the finding made by Master in Chancery, John F. Clark, save in the one instance that the court did not find from the evidence that Mr. Davies had been divorced in Ohio from his wife, Sarah Bennett Davies.

The finding came in a partition proceeding instituted by J. W. Davies et al against Llewellyn Davies et al as original bill, and Richard Davies et al vs. J. W. Davies et al in a cross bill. This finding does not have any relation to the county court proceeding wherein the sale of real estate was authorized to pay debts. Eighty acres of the Llewellyn Davies holdings are now being advertised for sale.

In making his decision Judge Burton declared that he was influenced to some extent by an unwillingness to give the stamp of illegitimacy to children of the deceased—men and women who for years have been respected citizens of the communities where they reside. The language of the court in announcing the finding was as follows:

Language of Decision

"To a part of this report of the Master, of course, there must be some exceptions sustained. I shall sustain the exceptions to this report wherein the report holds that there was a divorce in Ohio. There is nothing to sustain that finding. The question as it presents itself to me is one of financial matters, where parties have known the relations of each other for years and have made no objections to it until it came to the question of dividing the dollars.

"I am disposed to follow the Texas court, or the Missouri court, or the New Jersey court, or the intimations of the Illinois court, in this case. I believe it was Mr. Neizer that used the expression about Judge made law. I have always been opposed to judicial legislation. But I believe that this case can be decided and equity done all parties without judicial legislation or violating any of the well recognized rules of equity.

"The record in this case shows that Llewellyn Davies, a young man of about 23, married an old maid of about 30, and a child was born. They lived together and had another child.

"Llewellyn Davies then came to this country. That wife knew about his condition here. He came here and he contracted three marriages in this country. Those Welsh children knew about it. Then the children and descendants of the Wilson marriage here—five children—knew about the relations in the old country. And it makes no difference, as I view this case, whether parties are separated by the miles of ocean or mere neighborhood. There was nothing done by either the Welsh heirs or the American heirs to correct these illicit unions, if they were such, and I hold that the Welsh heirs and the American heirs, when it comes now to the proposition of dividing this property, shall share alike. They are children of a common parent. They have known the relation. I am not going to place the badge of illegitimacy upon any of them. I am going to hold upon the division of this property these children of a common parent shall share alike.

"It has been suggested in argument about some interest of Louisa Manchester—but that has been suggested in argument only. That is not before me judicially. But I would not pay much attention, should it be before me judicially, to a family that would seek to place the badge of illicit union upon a dead sister for the mere dollars that might be made by it.

"So that the order will be prepared—it will take some time to do it—I have checked off the Master's report here—I am going to sustain his report with the exception of that part which finds that there was a divorce in Ohio. I wish a decree prepared that will divide this property between the Welsh heirs and the American heirs according to the laws of descent and without placing any badge of illegitimacy upon any of them.

No Finding on Marriages
Judge Layman asked: "Should not the decree find in reference to the first marriage—whether or not there was a valid marriage, and then whether or not it was dissolved, and then whether or not the second marriage was valid? It seems to us that the court should find all three of these things in its decree.

The court: "Well the decree will not find any of those. As I remember, your suggestion has reference to the Manchester heirs.

Judge Layman: "That is not before the court. Their interest is not before the court.

The court: "I am not going to make any finding upon that. I am not going to hold that one marriage was valid and one was not. In the original suit for partition, J. P. Lippincott filed the bill. Subsequently Bellatti, Bellatti & Moriarty, and Kirby, Wilson and Brockhouse were secured to represent the interest of the American heirs and Judge M. T. Layman, W. N. Hargrove and Neizer and Gordley appeared for the English heirs and for the Manchester claimants. In the county court claim was filed against the estate by the heirs of Louisa Manchester for $50,000, setting forth that because the divorce had been secured by Llewellyn Davies from his wife in Wales, that subsequent marriages were illegal and that, therefore, the property secured by Llewellyn Davies thru alleged marriage with Louisa Manchester did not properly form a part of his estate. Subsequently notice was filed that this claim would be withdrawn and while there was nothing on record to indicate any settlement reached, it was understood that this was done by agreement of the attorneys for the Manchester heirs with attorneys for the English heirs.

First Marriage in Wales

The facts set forth in the finding of Master in Chancery Clark were as follows: Llewellyn Davies was married to Sarah Bennett on the 14th day of June, at the parish church in the parish of Llansantraid, county of Montgomery, Wales. The certified copy of the certificate of registration of the marriage offered in evidence did not give the office of the person who performed the marriage ceremony and was thus not in strict conformity to law. There was born to Llewellyn Davies and his wife a daughter, Elizabeth Davies, and in 1856, a son, named David Davies. The daughter, Elizabeth Davies was married June, 1876, to William Lowe of Aberystwyth, in the county of Cardigan. There were born to Mr. and Mrs. Lowe three daughters and one son, of whom two daughters, Emily Meek and Elizabeth May Lowe, are now living. Llewellyn Davies left Wales and came to the state of Ohio in 1855 and remained there until the fall of 1857, when he came to Cass county, arriving there at or near Garner Springs just before the Christmas holidays. He worked at his trade of blacksmith at different places in Cass county and in 1860 moved to Mason county and was married there to Catherine Wilson. They lived together until Llewellyn Davies in August, 1862, entered the army service of the United States and served until 1865, when he returned to his wife and their home in Cass county. There were born to Llewellyn Davies and his wife, Catherine Davies, the following children: John W. Davies, Edward M. Davies, Anna Isabel Davies, Margaret E. Davies and Samuel E. Davies, all of whom except Anna Isabel Davies were alive at the time of the death of their father. Anna Isabel Davies married Charles Davis and died prior to the death of her father, leaving Llewellyn Davies, Lena Masten, Jaennie Davis and Howard Davis her children and heirs at law.

Father Loyal to Sons

The master's report further set forth that Llewellyn Davies and his wife, Catherine Davies, had children, were recognized as a family, that the children were industrious and worked on the farm of their father. Following the death of Mrs. Catherine Davies, Llewellyn Davies married Elizabeth Coffee, who subsequently died. Following her death Llewellyn Davies on October 8, 1894, was married to Louisa Manchester, her death occurring prior to that of Llewellyn Davies. The master further declared that prior to his death Llewellyn Davies had made his home with his sons for several years and that each of them rented a farm from their father. Llewellyn Davies told neighbors and friends that he intended his farms should go to his boys and that he had bought a farm apiece for them. It was shown further that Llewellyn Davies before his marriage to Catharine Wilson in Mason county told the family of Catherine Wilson that he had been married in England and had obtained a divorce in Ohio.

After Llewellyn Davies came to America he corresponded with his brother, John Davies, until the death of the latter about forty-five years prior to May, 1914, and following the death of John Davies the widow, Hannah Davies, corresponded with Llewellyn Davies until about 1907. The master's report also mentioned that A. C. Rice is the duly appointed administrator of the estate of Llewellyn Davies; that claims amounting to $6,803.07 against the estate had been filed and allowed, and that the costs accruing amount to $88.50.

Property Division Outlined

In summing up his report the master further found that Llewellyn Davies died November 21, 1912, leaving surviving his children, Richard Davies, John W. Davies, Edward M. Davies, Margaret E. Loertscher and Samuel E. Davies, and his grandchildren, Emily Meek, Elizabeth May Lowe, Llewellyn Davies, Lena Masten, Jaennie Davis and Howard Davis as his only heirs at law. The finding, therefore, was that the children are entitled each to one-seventh of the estate, Emily Meek to one-fourteenth, Elizabeth May Lowe one-fourteenth, Llewellyn Davies one-twenty-eighth, Lena Masten one-twenty-eighth, Jaennie Davis one-twenty-eighth and Howard Davis one-twenty-eighth. The realty holdings of Mr. Davies were four or five hundred acres of excellent land lying a few miles east of Jacksonville.

No intimation has been given as to whether the case will be appealed. At various times in the past there have been suggestions of compromise but no ground acceptable to all parties concerned was ever found.

CELEBRATED FIFTY YEARS OF THEIR MARRIED LIFE

Golden Wedding Anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. John Becker Observed Friday.

June 16th, 1916, rounded fifty years of wedded life of Mr. and Mrs. John Becker, 923 South Main street, and the event was most happily celebrated with all the children and grandchildren present with the exception of one son and family. The entire day was devoted to a good time and most successfully.

Mr. Becker was born in Lauderbach, near Hess-Darmstadt, Germany March 14th, 1843 and at the age of fifteen came to this country and located in Arendville where he was married, June 16, 1866 to Miss Julia Thron, a native of Beardstown. They lived a year near Arendville and then moved to Indian Creek vicinity till 1891 when they removed to the homestead north of Alexander where they remained till 1911, when Mr. Becker decided he had farmed long enough and with his wife and two daughters came to the city and took up his residence as stated. Mr. Becker was a member of Co. D 154th Ill. Infantry, Captain Henry A. White and Col Mark Wood commanding the regiment.

The oldest son is George and he lives in Eddy, Oklahoma, and was too far away to be present. All the other members of the family were on hand. They were John and family of Litterberry; Elizabeth, Mrs. William Dahman and family of Winchester; their daughter, Mrs. Coy Stice and husband; William and family of Alexander; Christine, Mrs. Herman Dahman and family of Franklin; Alma, Mrs. Louis Sheely and family of this city, Misses Margaret and Theresa at home.

Eleven grandchildren were present and there are eight more in Oklahoma.

An elegant five course dinner was served and enjoyed by all. Mr. Becker gave each one of his children a present of gold and they in turn gave him a similar token of love and affection. The Ayers National Bank also sent a handsome bouquet in remembrance of the occasion.

Mr. Becker still enjoys excellent health and moves about as sprightly as a man of many less years. Mrs. Becker is quite well with the exception of rheumatism which occasionally gives her trouble. The day will long be remembered by all present.

SPECIAL BOARD MEETING CALLED FOR TONIGHT

A call was issued yesterday by J. P. Lippincott, president of the board of education, for a special meeting of the board of education to be held tonight. The call indicated the intention of the board to name persons for positions not previously filled and to attend to a number of details of school management. The meeting was arranged for tonight so that Supt. Perrin might be present. He has some work at the normal school, which it is necessary for him to complete before coming to Jacksonville. Saturday night is not a convenient meeting time for several of the members, and it is possible, therefore, that tonight no formal action will be taken, but plans will be discussed and agreements reached in a tentative way.

Knobs' assortment of warm weather furnishing goods is complete.

JAPS SUCCEED AS DIPLOMATS

Dispatches recently contained the announcement that Amiro Sato had been appointed ambassador to this country and is on the way to assume his duties at Washington. The Japanese ambassador at Petrograd is Chinda. L. O. Vaught, who is a graduate of the DePauw university at Greencastle, Ind., said yesterday that it is an unusual circumstance that Sato and Chinda were members of the same class at DePauw. They graduated in 1881. While Mr. Vaught finished at the university a number of years later, he was familiar with the excellent record made by these two Japanese at the university. For a long period of years there were eight or more of the Japanese constantly in attendance at DePauw.

NEXT YEAR'S C. E. CONVENTION WILL BE HELD IN CARROLLTON

The Rev. George Williams of Beardstown is Elected President—Profitable Sessions Friday at Northminster Church.

Carrollton was selected as the next place of meeting at the business session of the Jacksonville district Christian Endeavor convention Friday. The Rev. George Williams of Beardstown was re-elected president; Vincent Vieira of Jacksonville is secretary and Mrs. Hager of Beardstown, treasurer.

Both the talk on missions by the Rev. C. M. Eames and the discussion of the Men and Millions movement by Rev. Mr. Bingham Friday forenoon at Northminster church proved at once interesting and instructive. Societies from Beardstown, Chandler and Virginia were represented in the junior demonstration Friday afternoon and in the absence of Clarence L. DePew, the concluding devotional service was led by the Rev. M. L. Pontius. The day's program was completed by an address by E. P. Gates Friday night at Westminster church.

Reference was made by Mr. Gates to the state convention in Freeport, July 6 to 9. An excellent program has been prepared and large attendance is expected.

MRS. BUCK A FRIEND

TO WESLEYAN
Mrs. Martha Buck, widow of the late Rev. Dr. Hiram Buck, died in Decatur Thursday. The deceased had been ill for a long period and her death was not unexpected. Dr. Buck for a long period of years was one of the best known ministers of the Illinois conference. Both Dr. and Mrs. Buck gave very liberally to Illinois Wesleyan university at Bloomington and by her death that institution will come into possession of a thousand acres of valuable farm land in Douglas county. For years past the institution has shared in the rent from the land, but the ownership was subject to the life estate of Mrs. Buck. Years ago, when Dr. Buck gave 320 acres to the university, the gift constituted one of the largest made for the institution, and later on very substantial assistance was given by Mrs. Buck herself, who promised $200,000 to the institution if $500,000 additional could be raised. The condition was met.

DARING NAVY AVIATOR MET DEATH AFTER ENDURANCE TEST

Lieut. Richard Saufley Who Fell Distance of 800 Feet Was Related to Jacksonville People.

Lieutenant Richard Caswell Saufley of the navy aviation corps, in trying to break his former endurance record of eight hours of continuous flying, fell from a distance of about eight hundred feet. The accident happened near Pensacola, Florida. He had been in the air for nine hours when the accident occurred. Saufley was a well known young man in Lexington, Ky., and was a cousin of Judge T. B. Orear and Frank Orear of this city. He was a native of Stanford, Ky., and was educated in the Stanford public schools. Eleven years ago he left Central University to enter the Naval Academy at Annapolis. He was graduated from the academy seven years ago and after the usual service on land and sea and having attained the rank of lieutenant he entered the aviation corps and soon became known as one of the most daring and brilliant of fliers. In 1911 he married Miss Helen Orear, daughter of Judge and Mrs. E. C. Orear of Lexington.

Cause of Accident Uncertain.

Just what caused the accident, causing the daring young aviator to lose his life will never be known. He declared when he left the hangar at the Pensacola aeronautic station at four o'clock that he was going to out-do his previous record of eight hours continuous flight in a Curtis hydroplane and he kept soaring until after one o'clock. Other aviators were watching his record breaking flight when suddenly his machine tipped and fell from a height of possibly eight hundred feet. The machine plunged down to Santa Rosa island, but when about fifty or sixty feet from the ground the aviator seemed for a moment to have gained control of the craft for it righted itself for a moment then tumbled as the something had given way. Saufley was dying when aid reached him. Both legs were broken and his arm and chest fearfully crushed. His entire body was frightfully bruised.

Held World Records.

Saufley was one of the most experienced and valued aviators in the service. He was the holder of several world's records and was considered a positive genius by all naval officers who knew him. Last December in the aeroplane A-H-8, with another officer as an observer he made a sixty mile scouting trip over the Gulf of Mexico from Pensacola, in the first of a series of naval scouting experiments. In the same month he broke an altitude record at Pensacola, flying alone he achieved an altitude of 12,135 feet. On a previous flight with a passenger he attained an altitude of 8,340 feet. These were both world records for hydro-aeroplanes and were made in Curtis hydro-aeroplanes. Last March he attained an altitude of 16,972 feet in a similar machine. During the winter he made a series of successful flights from the deck of a warship.

In all Saufley was one of the most accomplished aviators of the day and his loss will be felt very keenly in all the departments of the aviation corps.

RETURN FROM CONVENTION.

Frank U. Correa, junior past state president of the Fraternal Order of Eagles, and Mrs. Correa, Fred W. Dohi and Michael McGinnis returned Friday afternoon from Rock Island where they attended the annual state convention of the order. Mr. Correa was presented with a diamond emblem ring by the delegates present and Mrs. Correa was the recipient of a handsome gift from the ladies' auxiliary of Rock Island. The convention was one of the best attended in the history of the order. Seven brass bands marched in a three-mile parade thru the Rock Island streets. One evening of the convention season, delegates and their wives enjoyed a moonlight boat excursion to Muscatine, Ia., where the Eagles of Iowa were assembled for a state meeting.

RETURNS FROM EAST.

Chief of Police George P. Davis has returned from a visit in the east. While absent he attended the national meeting of police chiefs in Newark, N. J., and later spent some time in New York and Boston. He was met at Decatur by Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Kinney and made the trip from that city to Jacksonville by automobile. They were caught in the rain Thursday afternoon between Springfield and Jacksonville and found the traveling difficult, passing several cars that were stranded in the mud.
